

1

2

3

4

2

My 11 year old child who has transitioned into secondary school has made a new friend who swears and behaves very rudely.

1

My 7 year old has started drawing pictures of guns and wants me to buy him toy guns or weapons...

4

My teenager has been acting very frustrated over recent news events and voices strongly about ideologies and beliefs that are different from my own.

3

My teenager wants to go out to a country facing conflicts to help with relief works.

5

6

7

8

6

Money has been missing on a few occasions from the money pot and my son denies taking them. He's the only one who knows where I keep the money pot.

5

My child is always in his room surfing the net. When I ask what he's doing he tells me that he's doing his homework. I'm concerned because he is spending too much time on the internet.

8

My teenager son has started wearing a "thobe" (a muslim man's white attire). He wears it all the time and refuses to wear jeans and t-shirts.

7

When I told my daughter that I'll be going away for the weekend and their favourite uncle will be looking after her she was very upset.

9

10

10

My child argues with me all the time about everything and refuses to engage with me.

9

My daughter has always been very outspoken and sociable child but has recently become withdrawn and isolates herself in her bedroom. She refuses to engage with any member of the family and is constantly sleeping or on her phone.